

Dear Sir Muir Russell,

In addition to my own submission, I have attached a copy of a joint submission made to the Commons committee.

As they state that submissions should not be published (a bit rich when they are supposed to be working for us!) I would request the submission is

NOT PUBLISHED!!!

For information, I wrote the majority of the report, but got considerable help from other "sceptics".

[The submission which was received as part of this response has been published by the House of Commons Science and Technology Committee and it is available from the following web link]
