

I am aware that the decision has been made, but it is indefensible to have a member of the team who previously worked at the institution he is meant to be investigating.

I do not doubt Professor Bolton's integrity, but this decision has destroyed any confidence the public will have in your findings. What an amazing thing to do.

Doug Vickers